

The American Association of State Highway and Transportation Officials is an organization that sets standards for highway design and construction. Most AASHTO standards are direct equivalents to existing ASTM standards.

The AASHTO M293 specification covers the chemical and mechanical requirements for hardened washers in diameters ranging from 1/4 " to 4 " inclusive. These heat treated washers are for general purpose and structural use. This standard is identical to ASTM F436.

HAIYAN BOLT

海盐百伦紧固件有限公司